

The Fifth International Symposium on Linear Drives for Industry Applications

第 5 回 産業用リニアドライブ国際シンポジウム

September 25-28, 2005, Awaji Yumebutai, Hyogo, Japan

The Fifth International Symposium on Linear Drives for Industry Applications (LDIA2005) will provide a forum for the discussion of present research and development activities and future prospects related to the linear drives for industry applications. Although linear drive systems have spread to applications in industry, there still remain many issues to be solved. This symposium will contribute to finding these solutions and the further development of linear drive technology. The Symposium will be held at the Hyogo Prefectural "Awaji Yumebutai" International Conference Center, Awaji Island, Hyogo, Japan. Awaji Island, the island of flowers, is connected to Kobe City by the world's longest suspension bridge Akashi-Kaikyo Bridge. Travel time from Kansai International Airport to the Conference Center is less than two hours by limousine bus. Frequent bus services are available between the Conference Center and JR Maiko or San-no-miya stations, downtown Kobe City, in 30 to 40 minutes.

The 2005 World Exposition, "Nature's Wisdom", Aichi, Japan is now held until September 25, 2005, near by Nagoya City. The linear induction motor driven electromagnetically suspended people mover system, "Linimo", is in service to connect Nagoya City and Expo site.

Early bird registration will be accepted through LDIA2005 home page from June 1st, 2005.
