IEEJ Journal of Industry Applications
Special Issue on “IPEC-Hiroshima”

Program Committee, Industry Applications Society, IEEJ
Technical Program Committee, IPEC-Hiroshima

The Industry Applications Society of the Institute of Electrical Engineers of Japan (IEEJ) plans to publish a special issue of the IEEJ Journal of Industry Applications for the International Power Electronics Conference -ECCE Asia- (IPEC-Hiroshima 2014) in May 2015. This special issue will feature the latest advancements in power electronics technologies. The IEEJ Journal of Industry Applications is an open access journal and everyone can subscribe the papers through internet.

Every author who has presented a paper at IPEC-Hiroshima 2014 has the right to submit his/her manuscript for possible publication to the IEEJ Journal of Industry Applications. The peer reviewing committee of the Industry Applications Society of IEEJ will review all submitted papers according to the regular reviewing procedure. Before submission, your manuscript is recommended to be revised and improved the quality of the papers based on discussions during the conference in order to meet the review criteria. Please note that papers that have not been presented at IPEC-Hiroshima 2014 will not be considered for possible publication in the special issue.
